

QAS School News

December 12, 2007

Christmas Break

Christmas break for Queen of All Saints students will begin at noon on Friday, December 21st. School will resume on Monday, January 7th.

The school office will also be closed during this time.

SCRIP Hours after Mass

SCRIP will be sold from the SCRIP office located in the school after all masses this weekend:

December 15th and 16th

SCRIP is also sold Monday, Wednesday and Friday 8:00 - 9:30 and Tuesday and Thursday 8:00 - 9:00 on days when the school is open.

Scrip will continue to be sold all next week including next Friday, December 21st. No special orders will be placed, only Scrip on hand will be sold.

Fundraising Opportunity

The Marquette Mall is offering free gift wrapping during the holidays. We are in need of volunteers to help wrap. Every person who wraps receives 100 points that go toward our shop-score-win total for every hour that they work. All tips earned go to the school and you receive one hour of fundraising credit for every hour worked.

A sign-up sheet is in the office. Names will be added until all slots are filled. If you cannot come into the office please call the school office at 872-4420. You can sign up to work as many hours as you are able.

We are in need of help for all shifts. Please consider this opportunity as a way to work off some fundraising hours and as a chance to meet some other QAS families.

The shifts for wrapping are:

Saturday, December 15th 2:30 - 7:00 p.m.

Sunday, December 16th 11:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Sunday, December 16th 3:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Help is Needed at Bears Games

The school works a concession stand at all Chicago Bears home games. Help is still needed for games on Dec. 23rd and Dec. 30th. If you are interested in helping please call Karen at 878-8417 or Chris at 872-2026.

Need a Stocking Stuffer Idea?

If you are looking for something to tuck away in a Christmas stocking please think about replenishing some of the student's school supplies. Many students are running out of glue, glue sticks, crayons, and have lost their scissors.

Choir has resumed practice on Wednesdays. The time will be extended to 4:00 p.m. until Christmas.

Choir News

Due to the 2 hour delay on Tuesday the Gifts for the Needy Mass will be tomorrow, Thursday. The children are asked to bring in a new wrapped toy for either a boy or a girl.

News from Noah's Ark

Noah's Ark will be closing at 3:00 p.m. on Friday, December 21st. Please plan accordingly as we have a noon dismissal that day.

Max Olson Update

Max was allowed to come home this past Sunday after receiving his first chemotherapy treatment on Saturday. It will be necessary for him to return to Riley's Hospital in Indianapolis one day each week for more chemotherapy. This will be his routine for the next several weeks.

Please continue to keep Max, and his parents in your prayers. You can leave Max and/or his parents messages by going to www.caringbridge.org and typing in maxolson on the left hand side of the page where it asks for the name.

Students may wear boots to school but they are to have the appropriate school shoes to wear in the building. They are not to wear boots in the classroom.

A great big thank you to all who helped to make the Christmas Cookie sale a huge success. Thank you to those who made cookies and to those who sent in monetary donations to cover the cost of the containers. We made $650.00 this year.

A special thank you to Heather Moldenhauer, Nisrene Zaknoun, Shari Johnson, and Cresinda Martin for your help in packaging and selling the cookies. This was a success thanks to everyone's help.

Celebrating Our Different Cultures

Please see today's Brown envelope for a letter about Queen of All Saints School having a Culture Fair on Friday, February 1st. Each grade level has chosen a culture that they will be researching and preparing a presentation for. In order to make this a success we are asking for help from the families of our students. You are welcome to contribute to any classroom, you are not limited to contributing only to the classroom of your children.

Please return the second page of the form by next Friday, December 21st.

Congratulations

The following students from Queen of All Saints School received for the first time the sacrament of Reconciliation last evening:

Christmas Goodie Bag Raffle

The NJHS will be selling chances for 5 different Christmas bags loaded with goodies. Chances are 25 cents each or 5 for a dollar. The chances will be sold Monday through Thursday next week during lunch. The drawing will be held on Thursday afternoon. All proceeds will go to the Max Olson Fund.

A few weeks ago Father Terry sent home a letter asking parents of QAS students to consider giving a one time donation to the school to help in offsetting the shortfall of funds. To date a total of $800 has been collected. Thank you to those who have contributed to the special collection.

Donations are still being accepted and can be dropped off at either the school office, in the mail, or at the rectory.

Ice Cream Sale

The QAS Student Council will be selling ice cream treats tomorrow and Friday for $1 each. Student Council hosts the 8th grade graduation reception and sponsors Spring Fest each year.

A huge thank you to Mrs. Susan Paholski and all those who volunteered to help with Santa's Secret Workshop. The students enjoyed the opportunity to shop. All profits go to the Q.A.S. Book club to purchase books, quiz disks, and prizes for the students.

Please remember that school dismisses at noon next Friday. Christmas parties will begin at 10:30 a.m.
